

Long Bio

Cam Stewart is a recognized leader in diversity, inclusion, and human rights with over twenty-five years of experience. His leadership is grounded in inclusive action and a steadfast commitment to community, shaped by his work with institutions across Alberta, including the Calgary Police Service, Alberta Human Rights Commission, Rotary, StopHateAB, Calgary Learns, University of Calgary, and 12 CSI.

His contributions to advancing equity and inclusion have been recognized with numerous honours, including Rotary International's Person of Action – Champion of Inclusion, the Queen's Platinum Jubilee Medal, the Jewish Repairing the World Award, the YMCA Peace Medal, the Baha'i Community Racial Harmony Award, Muslim Community of Calgary Award, Alberta's Outstanding Contribution to Community Adult Learning Award, and the Calgary Police Service Chief's Award for Community Service. He has also been gifted an eagle feather, pipe, and the Blackfoot name Mikostahpinukum "Red Morning."

Cam is the Executive Director of the Alberta Civil Liberties Research Centre and serves as the Board Chair of STOPHATE AB and on the board of the Rotary District 5360 and chairs its Indigenous Relations Committee.

Cam holds a Master's degree in Intercultural Communication from Royal Roads University and has delivered keynote speeches, workshops, and strategic guidance to hundreds of organizations. Cam is the author of the best-selling book LIVE to DIE - A Journey in Diversity, Inclusion, and Equity, continuing to inspire change through both his leadership and his voice.